

NETLIPSE Network Meeting Programme (Provisional)

Copenhagen, 7-8th May 2012

Meeting locations: North Atlantic House
<http://www.bryggen.dk/default.asp?Doc=29>

Sunday, May 6th

Meeting location: Imperial Hotel, Vester Farimagsgade 9, Copenhagen

15:00 – 16:00 NETLIPSE Board Meeting – (Board members only)

16:00 – 18:00 NETLIPSE Council of Delegates – (Invited guests only)

19:00 Informal dinner at the Imperial Hotel (costs to be paid by delegates)

Monday, May 7th

08:30 Coffee and tea

08:45 Opening and welcome
Leendert Bouter, Dutch Ministry of Transport, Chairman NETLIPSE Board

09:00 Introduction to Major Infrastructure Projects in Denmark
Søren Andersen, Head of Projects Danish Road Directorate

09:30 Presentation of the Kliplev – Soenderborg Motorway (PPP)
Søren Andersen, Head of Projects Danish Road Directorate

10:00 NETLIPSE 2012+: update of NETLIPSE activities
Pau Lian Staal, NETLIPSE Programme Manager

10:30 Coffee break

11:00 New Line Copenhagen-Ringsted – the first HSL in Denmark
Jan Schneider Tilli, Programme Director (Copenhagen – Ringsted)

- 11:30 Rethink!PSM: Rethinking Project Stakeholder Management and results of the NETLIPSE SIG Stakeholder Participation & Communication Focus Group Meeting
Annabeth Aagaard, Assistant professor, PhD, Msc., University of Southern Denmark
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:30 Maasvlakte 2: Demand Driven Development of a Port
René van der Plas, Director Port Development and Construction, Port of Rotterdam
- 14:00 Governance Trust and Ethics in Projects
Professor Rodney Turner, Professor Project Management, SKEMA Business School, Lille
- 15:00 Teabreak
- 15:30 Applying Systems Engineering Practices for the Benefit of Large Infrastructure Projects
Alan Knott, Technical Director Parsons Brinckerhoff, INCOSE Infrastructure Working Group
- 16:00 Panel discussion: Challenges in Road, Rail, Waterway projects in Denmark
Søren Andersen, Head of Projects Danish Road Directorate
.....
- 16:45 Closing and introduction to Tuesday
Leendert Bouter, Chairman of the NETLIPSE Board
- Walking tour (provisional)
- 20:00 Formal Dinner sponsored by the Danish Road Directorate

European Infrastructure Procurement Symposium: May 8th 2012

08:30 - 09:00	Welcome coffee and tea
09:00 - 09:15	Opening Leendert Bouter, Chairman NETLIPSE Board
09:15 - 09:45	Keynote 1: The current state of procurement in Denmark State of procurement and experiences within large infrastructure projects Jens J. Holmboe, Construction Director from the Danish Road Directorate
09:45 - 10:15	Keynote 2: Perspective on procurement from recent practices to now and in the future: Effects on collaboration, trust, innovation, and project results Peter Lundhus, Former Technical Director for Femern and Øresund Fixed Links (Denmark)
10:15 - 10:30	Coffee & tea break
10:30 - 12:30	Business Arenas: interactive workshops about emergent themes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Trust & Innovation - Sweden: Jan Bröchner, Professor, Chalmers University of Technology Björn Kruse, Head of Procurement, City Line Project, Swedish Transport Administration 2. Future of the Anglo Saxon PPP - United Kingdom/USA: Mike Evans, Infrastructure Leader Europe, ARUP 3. Alliances – Finland: Pekka Petäjaniemi, Head of the Road Investment Unit at the Finnish Transportation Agency Pertti Lahdenpera, Research Professor at VTT 4. Best value procurement - the Netherlands: Carlita Vis, Procurement Manager, Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment 5. Early contractor involvement – Germany : Konrad Spang, Professor, Head of the Department of Project Management at the University of Kassel
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch - buffet
13:30 - 14:00	Keynote 3: Future perspective on PPP in the UK: Does PPP really help in a time of recession? Stuart Baker, Director National Rail Projects, Department for Transport (UK)
14:00 - 15:30	Closing debate about future perspectives: Feedback from Business Arena's and discussion with participants
15:30	End of the Symposium – Drinks