

Leadership practices in large infrastructure programmes

Dr Katharina Burger

The Bartlett School of Sustainable Construction
University College London

NETLIPSE Research Café
April/May 2023

Leadership practices

Leadership is crucial to the delivery of major infrastructure programmes

Perspectives on leadership evolve, making exchange of ideas necessary

What does leadership mean to practitioners in large infrastructure programmes?

Brainstorming during the NETLIPSE research cafe

Three rounds of brainstorming

Explore the virtual sticky
notes here

Miro board

The 8S model

Emerges from the data through thematic analysis of the brainstorming session

Thank you for your attention

Contact details

Dr Katharina Burger

Associate Professor in Major Infrastructure Delivery

The Bartlett School of Sustainable Construction
Faculty of the Built Environment

2nd Floor 1-19 Torrington Place London, WC1E 7HB

Email: katharina.burger@ucl.ac.uk

www.linkedin.com/in/kburger

Deputy Programme Director MBA in Major Infrastructure Delivery

More information about the MBA: Major Infrastructure Delivery MBA | The Bartlett School of Sustainable Construction - UCL – University College London