Netlipse Scientific Group

Research Programme

Vienna, 25 November 2014

Contents

1. Who are we?

2. Research project Perspectives on Project Success

3. Ideas for new research: early contractor involvement and alliance

4. IPAT development

5. Funding possibilities (Horizon 2020)

6. Proposal Erasmus Plus

1. Who are we?

- Ivana Burcar Dunović, University of Zagreb, Croatia
- Martina Huemann, WU Vienna University, Austria
- Anna Kadefors, Chalmers University, Sweden
- Giuseppe Pace, Ghent University, Belgium
- Rodney Turner, SKEMA Business School, France; Politecnico di Milano, Italy
- Marcel Hertogh, Delft University of Technology, Netherlands
- Marian Bosch-Rekveldt, Delft University of Technology, Netherlands

2. Research project:
Presentation Laura Coman

3. Ideas for new research 2015

- Collaborative Contracting
  - (Early contractor involvement)
  - (Alliance)
- Involved: all members

4. IPAT-development

4. IPAT Activities 2015

- Mapping different assessment models (e.g. gate review, quality assurance models, and other 'IPAT's'):
  - What is the aim?
  - What is the focus? Business cases, technological issues, management, results/ impact, ...
  - Sustainability: In the IPAT sustainability is not covered specifically. If and maybe how to incorporate sustainability in IPAT?
  - What can we learn from these?
  - Ivana (coordinator), Martina, Marcel, ...

- IPAT assessments:
  - Quality assurance of IPAT assessments
  - Contribution to IPAT assessments

5. Possibilities for funding

- Relationship with governments, especially the European Commission for opportunities for funding
  - Search for funding possibilities, especially the European Commission (Horizon 2020)
  - The TEN-T Executive Agency seems less interesting for us now.
- Giuseppe (coordinator), others

6. Proposal Erasmus Plus (1)

- European Fund, deadline April 2015
- International academic education in the field of project management.
- By jointly developing a blended education programme on project management (MSc level).
- Program: combination of different locations, e-learning activities, face-to-face learning.
- Target group: master students, professionals, tbd
- Funding Erasmus Plus: for development.
- Ivana, Martina, Marcel, Marian (coordinator)

6. Proposal Erasmus Plus (2)

Programme:

- 6 main courses
- Each 5 ECTS (equals 140 study hours),
- Divided over 2 years

Certificate:

- Positive result, certificate at the end of the course.

Post academic project management program (30 ECTS)

COURSE 1 | COURSE 2 | COURSE 3
Face to face 1 | Online teaching | Face to face 2 | Online teaching | Online teaching | Face to face 3 | Online teaching

2016

COURSE 4 | COURSE 5 | COURSE 6
Face to face 1 | Online teaching | Face to face 2 | Online teaching | Online teaching | Face to face 3 | Online teaching

2017